

Susan Yingling*Bicycle gears in Akron*

This piece layers a photographic engraving of the architectural elements on a Spanish cathedral with an engraving of the pedals and gears on my bicycle. The engraved glass has been layered with a photograph of downtown Akron taken from the top of the Easter Avenue hill. I liked the interactive play of the cathedral's architecture with the mechanical qualities of the bicycle.